Blockchain Digital Assets Portfolio

Fintech World Group is a medley of emerging blockchain-based companies bridging a variety of markets to new digital crypto assets. We're developing viable, sustainable solutions and invite you to take a look at our unique SPV collection.

Crypto Film Fund is a blockchain entertainment investment platform (BEIP) enabling both institutional and public investors to participate in the funding of cutting-edge projects in the entertainment industry – targeting independent filmmakers, video game creators, musical artists, and concert producers.

Investments are represented by a security token, and profit distribution is conducted automatically via smart contracts based on a token stake. Every investment and transaction made is tracked via a distributed ledger giving investors the ability to follow their investment at all times affording access, transparency, and liquidity.

Blockchain CRE presents a suite of real estate investment products offering both property owners and new investors increased accuracy, efficiency, transparency, security, and liquidity in their property decisions and interactions.

Our solutions utilize blockchain-based smart contracts for a variety of platforms that automatically link all external and internal property-related activities and transactions to a unique digital ID. Investors are able to make highly informed property and management decisions utilizing the enormous amount of tamper-proof data that is stored, aggregated and attached to their tokenized assets.

Stem Cell Lab.io works with the top researchers, scientists, inventors, and doctors in the stem cell industry seeking the most promising solutions to the world's most challenging health problems. Our goal at Stem Cell Lab is to bring this elite and revolutionary medical practice to the masses – making it accessible to all. With integral investment we can combat some of the most debilitating and costly diseases that will affect each of us today and into the future.
